Company Profile

Erceg Management Pty Ltd specialises in the development, leasing and management of shopping centres, bulky goods and mixed use developments throughout the state of Western Australia.

Erceg Management Pty Ltd commenced its shopping centre development in 1980. A privately owned company, it strives itself to become an industry leader in the Western Australian of shopping centre development today and for the future, providing the community with superb shopping experiences with modern shopping conveniences at all of its quality built complexes.

Erceg Management Pty Ltd is continually expanding its shopping centre portfolio through new development and diversity. We work hard to create a successful tenant mix and ensure that each of our properties meets the needs of the surrounding community. All Erceg properties are well located, occupying prime sites in high traffic areas convenient to major residential developments.
